TWENTY-THREE FINISH WORK AT NORMAL

Granted Two-Year Diplomas
By President Showalter
Friday.

EXERCISES BRIEF BUT IMPRESSIVE

President Addresses Graduates, Urging Them to Be of Service to the State.

Twenty-three students received two-year diplomas at the graduation exercises, held in the auditorium last Friday during assembly period.

As it is customary to hold formal commencement exercises only at the close of the spring and summer quarters, the exercises Friday were brief. The program was opened by the singing of the Washington State Song by the entire student body.

As a special slection, Pauline Hodges, a member of the graduating class, sang "Whispering Hope." Miss Hodges was accompanied by Miss Bard.

President Showalter then congratulated the graduates and spoke of the pride the institution has in its graduates. He emphasized the fact that they should strive to give something to the public in return for the advantages they have received from this institution.

President Showalter invited the graduates to return and participate in the formal graduation exercises next spring.

He also stated that Mrs. Monroe regretted that she was unable to be here for the exercises.

After the address the seniors filed up on the stage as Mr. Kingston read their names and received their diplomas from President Showalter.

The graduates then marched from the auditorium, followed by those who were to receive elementary certificates. The rest of the students followed to the rotunda, where they congratulated the graduates.

Those receiving diplomas were: Muriel Anderson, Esther Balcom, Josephine Benner, Mrs. Carson, Alice Cookson, Lurella Corey, Myrtle Crane, Julia De Young, Dorothy Fredrickson, Eunice Hafferson, Pauline Hodges, Mary Hughes, Freda Kjack, Mary Lane, Muriel Lawton, Emma Leibrecht, June McChesney, Alice McKay, Rowena Nance, Geraldine Scott, Elma Wagner, Mildred Wilt, and Itha Winchell.

The following students received elementary certificates:

Nellie Akers, Susie Bailor, Ruth Barney, Olive Jackins, Susie King, Lulu Tupper, Marion Hutton, Beulah Florida, and Mabel Hay.

MAMIE ANDERSON NEW MONROE HALL HEAD

Corridor Representatives Chosen at Meeting Held on Monday Evening.

Plans for the winter quarter were made at a meeting held at Monroe Hall last Monday. The following officers were elected:

President, Mamie Anderson; vice president, Gladys Simmons; secretary-treasurer, Dorothea Dowty; yell leader, Una Jones; song leader, Zo Benzeli; chairman of program committee, Lillian Johnson; chairman of refreshment committee, Lillian Molson.

Following the house meeting the corridors met and elected the following representatives: Corridor No. 1, Mary Echard; Corridor No. 2, Pauline Deubert; Corridor No. 3, Emma Louise Morris; Corridor No. 4, Mrs. Woodend; Corridor No. 5 (Sleepy Hollow Corridor), Mary Bayer; Corridor No. 6 (Gasoline Alley), Helga Johnson; Corridor No. 7, Lydia Kientzler.

The duty of the corridor representative is to maintain order in her corridor.

NON-DANCE PLAY HOUR IS POPULAR

Next Non-Dance Play Hour Will Probably Not Be Held Until January Tenth.

Another non-dance play hour was held in the gymnasium last night. Games were played and everyone had a good time. Ruth Adams had charge of the program.

The non-dance play hours will be held on alternate Thursday nights. But on account of the Christmas vacation the next one will probably not be held until January 10.

To Lecture on Goutre
A lecture on goutre will be given in the auditorium by Dr. H. P. Marshall, Tuesday, December 18, at 3:45.
This lecture is to be given for the benefit of the Normal students, and all are urged to attend.
Members of the Parent-Teacher Association and all others interested are invited to hear the lecture.

MONROE HALL HAS FAREWELL PARTY

Program Given in Honor of Girls Who Are Leaving the Normal.

MANY CLEVER STUNTS

Vaudeville, Love Scenes, Wedding,
Snoring Trio Feature Evening's Entertainment.

The Monroe Hall farewell party, given Thursday evening of the last quarter in honor of the girls who were leaving, was a decided success. An attractive program was given, Lillian Johnson being in charge.

Contributions were made by several corridors.

Corridor No. 1 gave a vaudeville act, the following participating: Alex Shields, Thelma Matheson, Myrtle May, Augusta Robinson, Ruth Tyra, Effie Tinnel, Jewel Pope, Wilma Manning and Gertrude Powell. Alex Shields and Thelma Matheson were the "stars."

Corridor No. 2 gave an alphabetic stunt featuring the wooing of a fair maiden, Blanche Post. Velma Mack gave an excellent characterization of the ardent suitor; Esther Nystrom, the stern father; Ruth Larsen, the parson, and Inda Smith, the meek mother.

Corridor No. 3 presented both the wedding of Priscilla and John Alden, and a scene from Macbeth. Mamie Anderson took the parts of the white bull and of Lady Macbeth. Barbara Deffert took the parts of Priscilla and of Lady Macbeth's nurse. Frieda Mashburn took the part of John Alden. Bertha Davis took the part of the Doctor. Anna Remer read the part of Macbeth, which Mamie Anderson, Barbara Deffert, and Bertha Davis did in pantomime.

Sleepy Hollow Corridor presented "Sheet Music," a snoring trio, composed of Cora Carbaugh, Lanie Weigelt, and Mary Bayer.

The third floor cross corridor gave a style show, under the direction of Esther McDonald. Appropriate dresses for all occasions were exhibited. Edna Lueck promenaded in a modern street dress (it wouldn't get by in Cheney), Vera Turner wore a morning gown and a beautiful head dress of kid curlers. Lydia Kientzler wore a model dinner gown made of excellent white muslin. An ideal school dress was shown by Mildred Klumpner. We noticed the chewing gum garnish. As a fitting close, Hazel Elliott and Helen Aebly appeared respectively in evening dress for women and men. The man's night cap was original.

Gasoline Alley gave a Valentino dance, Clara Powell making a fine shiek and Jackie Tillquist being a fine shiekess. Tillie Butler was the jazz artist.

This was followed by playing of games and dancing. Refreshments consisting of popcorn and apples were served.

644 NOW REGISTERED AT CHENEY NORMAL

About 80 New Students Have Entered
At the Beginning of the Present Quarter.

At the closing of registration Monday evening, the total registration for the new quarter was 644. Of these 617 are regular students, 24 high school, and three special students.

Of these about 80 were not enrolled last quarter.

PLAN CHRISTMAS EXHIBIT IN SPOKANE

Chinook Camp Fire Work on Articles
To Be Shown Under Young Folks'
Handicraft Exhibit.

Chinook Camp met Thursday night to plan and work on articles for a Christmas sale. The camp also plans to enter an exhibit in the young folks' handicraft exhibit conducted by the Chronicle in the Crescent store, Spokane, December 17, 18 and 19. Last year Spokane had a large exhibit, winning several prizes. This time prizes are offered to groups outside of Spokane.

NORMAL IS EFFICIENTLY ORGANIZED

Work Divided Into Six Departments,
Headed by President's Cabinet.

INSTRUCTIONAL STAFF REORGANIZED IN 1920

Names of All Instructors, and Subjects
Taught, Give Interesting Survey of the School.

The organization of a school force, like that of a big business, requires a division and a distribution of duties among the members of the force in order that the largest possible efficiency may be obtained.

President N. D. Showalter

At the head of the Normal School, directly charged by the executive of the state with the responsibility for the policy and government of the institution, stands the board of trustees.

Mrs. Mary A. Monroe, principal of the Lincoln School, Spokane, is chairman of the board. The other members are State Senator Charles E. Meyers,avenport, and Mr. Charles P. Lund, attorney, of Spokane. These persons are appointed by the governor for a term of six years. They elect a chairman from their number and employ a secretary.

The administrative staff of the school is the local group of persons charged with the direction and enforcement of the school policy, the disbursement of funds, and such general business. At its head stands the president, N. D. Showalter, A. B., A. M. Other members of this group are: C. S. Kingston, A. B., A. M., vice president and registrar; Louise M. Spaeth, A. B., dean of women; H. N. Stronach, accountant and secretary to the board of trustees; Mrs. H. J. Quinn, assistant accountant, and Miss Nettie E. Goodman, secretary to the president.

Closely related to this group, but not a part of it, are the persons in charge of the residence halls. They are directly responsible for discipline within their own dormitories, and in case a dining room is maintained in connection with it, for the conduct of the dining hall. Miss Frances Wilson is in charge of Monroe Hall and the girls' dining room. Miss Nettie E. Goodman is matron of Senior Hall in addition to her duties as secretary, mentioned above. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shinkle direct the life of Sutton Hall, the boys' dormitory. Miss Katherine Dutting is the school nurse.

In the fall of 1920 the instructional staff was reorganized on a departmental basis, the object being to gain a greater efficiency in administration by concentrating certain responsibilities in a smaller group as well as to effect certain economies. To this end the school is now organized into six departments. Each of these is, in turn, divided into divisions according to the kinds of work and variety of subject matter offered by the department.

Department of Applied Sciences and Arts

The Department of Applied Sciences and Arts comprises all of the work in agriculture, manual training, home economics, and art. Its staff includes: Joseph Wynne Hungate, A. B., M. S., head of the department and instructor in agriculture and biological science. Division of Home Economics—Dora S. Lewis, B. S., domestic science; Louise Anderson, B. S., domestic science; Edith Patterson, domestic art. Division of Art—Mary Gulick Swerer and Hazel Jean Plympton. Division of Manual Arts—James S. Lane, woodworking; John Dawe, mechanics; Richard J. Hochtritt, printing.

BASKETBALL GAME TODAY

A basketball game will be played in the Normal gymnasium at 4:30 this afternoon between the first team of Lewis and Clark High School, of Spokane, and the second Normal team. The following men compose the Normal squad: Everett Reed, Earl Reed, Ashley, Swannack, Heppner, Sheppard, Magnette, Mason, Miller, Hampton, Clyde Turner, and Showalter. There will be an admission charge of 10 cents.

Lost and Found Articles

Lost and found articles may be found in the lost and found box in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Any one losing or finding anything should go to the Y. W. service committee, and not bother Dean Spaeth. Notices regarding time when articles may be claimed will be posted on the bulletin board.

SAVAGES CHOSEN AS SCHOOL NAME

Receives Overwhelming Majority
at Student Body Meeting Held Tuesday.

ENDS LONG DISSENSION

New Name Will Be Powerful Incentive to all Normal Athletic Teams.

By an overwhelming majority, the name Savages was chosen for the teams of the Cheney State Normal at a meeting of the Associated Students held last Tuesday. The two names submitted for final vote were Savages and Apaches.

The decision of the student body is an evidence that the general dissension which has characterized the efforts to agree upon a name during the last two months has given way to a spirit of cooperation.

Hereafter the name Savages will be supreme in the presence of the Normal's goddess of traditions, Sacajawea.

In the opinion of the leaders of student activities at the Normal, as well as the students, the new name will be a powerful incentive to our athletic teams.

The Journal suggests that yells be written at once to embody the new name.

"HEROES OF THE STREET" SATURDAY

Wesley Barry, Young Boy Star, Appears in Movie Thrill as a
"Regular Guy."

Wesley Barry, the young boy star of the screen, will be presented in "Heroes of the Street" at the Normal auditorium tomorrow night.

Mickey Callahan, as characterized by the juvenile star, is a "regular guy" who fights as often as he can find a reason for doing so.

His father, Policeman Callahan, is shot dead mysteriously. Mickey becomes the bread winner of the family. As property boy with the Broadway Follies, a position secured through the influence of Betty Benton, a fluffy little blonde friend, the youthful hero has an opportunity to block a fake kidnapping plan of spiriting Betty away to a villain's lodge. There follows such a succession of thrills involving intense action in which Mickey and his pet dog figure brilliantly.

"Heroes of the Street" is the acme of perfection in story, photography, acting, and the other essentials needed to make it a universal production.

NORMAL DEBATE TEAMS SELECTED

Will Represent Cheney at Bellingham and Ellensburg on March Sixth.

The debate team which was chosen at the tryout last week is now preparing in earnest for the triangular debate with Bellingham and Ellensburg Normal Schools March 6. Lester Reeves, Robert Hungate, and Dorothy Allen will represent the negative at Bellingham. Guy Stalker, Mae Stalder, and Clark Robinson, the affirmative team, will meet Ellensburg in the local auditorium on the same evening.

Clark Robinson, debate manager, while in Pullman, made tentative arrangements for a meet with the W. S. C. frosh. Final arrangements, however, cannot be made till the freshman team is selected and their schedule arranged. There is a possibility that a debate may be arranged with Lewiston Normal.

NORMAL WINS FIVE GAMES OUT OF SEVEN

Season Just Closed One of Most Successful in History of the School.

EUSTIS' MEN TAKE CONFERENCE TITLE

Run Up Total of 176 Points as Against Total of 65 Points for Their Opponents.

On Thanksgiving day the Normal school completed one of the most successful football seasons in the history of the school. The team won five out of seven games played, and easily won the Spokane Intercollegiate Conference championship by defeating Spokane University, 30 to 0, on the home field, Spokane College, 35 to 6, in Spokane, and Whitworth, 54 to 0, in Cheney. The first game the team lost was at Moscow, where they played the University of Idaho "Frosh" and were defeated to the tune of 25 to 6, but in turn won from W. S. C. "Frosh" at Cheney with a score of 18 to 6.

The team journeyed to Ellensburg and revenged last year's defeat at the hands of the Ellensburg team by a score of 20 to 2. By winning the conference and beating Ellensburg the team won the trip to Bellingham, where they played for the minor college championship of the state. This game resulted in the Normal's second defeat, with a score of 26 to 13. No alibi is offered for the two games lost. The best teams won.

In figuring up the scores, it is found that the Normal made 176 points to their opponents' 65, or nearly three times the scores made by their opponents, which is a very good record for any team.

The men we have to thank for the record this year are as follows: A. A. Eustis, coach, graduate of W. S. C., who has been with the Normal School for the past several years coaching the athletics with increasing success each year. Mr. Eustis was assisted this year by L. V. Tyler of the faculty, also a graduate of W. S. C.

Quimby "Kim" Lefevre of Medical Lake, captain and tackle, was one of the team's strongest men and a star on the defensive, playing his second year of Normal football. "Kim" is also a basketball and baseball man, having six letters, two in each sport.

Homer "Gus" Welch of Bonners Ferry, Idaho, end, played his second year on the team and was one of the team's mainstays and a steady player in both defense and offense.

Theodore "Ted" Sheppard, of Palouse, fullback, was one of the Normal's most consistent ground gainers and a man responsible for many of the Normal's points this year. This was Sheppard's first year in Normal football.

Jim Davis, of Endicott, guard, was one of the powers of the team until he had the misfortune of breaking his leg, which eliminated him from completing the season. His position was hard to fill. Jim has now abandoned his crutches.

Robert "Bob" Farnsworth of Bickleton, halfback, was one of the strong men on forward passes and skirting the end, and a very good open field runner. This was Bob's second year on the Normal team. He is also a one letter track man.

Earl Reed, of Johnson, played both guard and tackle, and was a very strong man on the defense as well as on the offense. This was Earl's first year in football. He is a one letter man in track.

C. Maury Nelson, of Peach, played the first part of the season at center but was later shifted to guard and tackle. All three places he filled with excellent success, being one of the team's standbys, always in the game. Maury is also a two letter baseball man and a one letter basketball man.

Wendell "Babe" Laughon, of Dayenport, halfback, is one of the men who fulfilled the saying, "Good things come in small packages." "Babe" was a shark at slipping through small holes. He was in the game all the time. This was his first year at the Normal.

Dell "Russ" Russell, of Mesa, tackle, was one of the men who always plugged through the line and carried his share of the burden and could always be depended on to put forth a little more effort. This is his first year in Normal football.

Stanley "Stan" Wynstra, of Cheney, quarterback, has now played his third year as quarterback on the Normal team, which goes to show his worth in that position. "Stan" was an excellent open field runner, and a real safety. "Stan" also has six letters.

MONROE HALL

Miss Alice Anderson entertained her mother, Mrs. T. C. Anderson, of Mabton, last Wednesday.

The unexpected has happened—yep, it dropped from a clear sky, and the result is that two are now as one. In other words, Loretta Murray, known as Twin Number Two, has at last bobbed her hair.

Miss Mabel Arnold was a week-end visitor at McCroskey Hall, in Pullman.

Monroe Hall has a number of new occupants in her numerous corridors. Miss Bertha Davis, Eva Houtchens, and Muriel Tollefson are the new residents who were welcomed in Sleepy Hollow. Welcome Inn and Kickum Cut Lodge has taken in Ellen "Spud" Murphy. By the way, she is the only one who hasn't been kicked more than a dozen times out of the notorious "lodge" during the past week. For evidence just ask Jessie Smith about Monroe Hall.

Among the new Monroe Hall girls are the Misses Sue Holliday and Leora Repp.

Margaret Taylor had as her guest during the week Miss Jessie Parsons of Colville.

Dewdrop Inn, the home of Myrtle May, Leora Repp, and Thelma Matheson, was the scene of much festivity in honor of Miss Verna Milligen last Saturday night. After enjoying a fudge feast, at which many took advantage of the standing invitation (Dewdrop Inn), the following indulged in a slumber (?) party: Verna Milligen, Lydia Weitz, Ida Lindstrum, Alice Shields, Twin I and Twin II Murray, Zona Benschel and the hostesses.

Miss Nelle Wilson, of Spokane, visited her sister, Miss Frances Wilson, over Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Irma Lamphear, of Room 106, insists that she see her name in print. Hello, Irma, here you are.

Spokane visitors over Saturday and Sunday were: Vera Rogers, Mabel Thomas, Emma Louise Morris, Vera Turner, Edna Lueck, Lydia Kientzler, Mary Neffner, Kathryn Hertrich, Celestine Nagle and Thelma Matheson. The Misses Wilma Manning, Edna Hall, Mildred Klumpner, and Pansy McGaughey motored to Spangle last Sunday as the guests of Miss Dickinson and Miss Patterson.

As the guest of Misses Myrtle May and Thelma Matheson, Miss Verna Milligen, of Spokane, visited here over the week-end.

SUTTON HALL

Intimacy with a certain individual disclosed the startling information that Carlos Scott has adopted as part of his wearing apparel a pair (or set) of galluses. Next it may be a pair of feminine galoshes, perhaps.

Jack Hughes' interest in Coeur d'Alene has not waned. He made another visit last week.

John and James Davis visited their home at Endicott, over the week-end.

The Misses Oona Allard and Pauline Daubert were Sunday dinner guests of Robert Farnsworth and Daniel Daubert.

Mr. A. M. Finch, Claude Shields, and Arthur Stairs, of Lamont, were entertained at Sutton Hall Saturday, by boys attending Normal from Lamont.

Mr. E. Hallam Nourse, of Spokane, was a Friday evening guest of the boys.

Miss Edith Patterson, of the Domestic Science department, was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shinkle at Sutton Hall.

Claude Turner spent the week-end visiting his parents at Deer Park.

Clark Robinson went to Pullman last Friday, where he visited with a brother and sister attending W. S. C. and with other friends of that institution.

Among the boys new to the hall this quarter are: John Durland, a graduate of Cheney High School; George Andrews, Tuscior, Montana; Harold Phelps, Lamont, Wash.; Everett Mottler, Colville; Nels Swanson, Creston; Dewey Sharp, Steptoe; Henry Spilker and Berton Level, of Davenport.

To make his "fussing" more suitable to his physical proportions, Babe Laughon hereby advertises for a pair of stilts.

Thor Anderson has quit school and has returned to his home at Curlew.

Homer Welch has taken up his duties as a teacher in the Latah schools.

NORMAL STUDENTS FIND POSITIONS

Graduates Will Teach in Schools of Washington, Oregon, and Montana.

Ten students of Cheney Normal left school at the end of the fall quarter to take positions in schools of Washington, Montana, and Oregon.

Homer Welch will teach at Latah, Bessie Roberts has an excellent position in Hoquiam, Nellie Akers will teach at Lakeside, and Lulu Tupper at Wilbur. Freda Kjack has a position at Klamath Falls, Oregon. June McChesney will teach at Kalama, Rowena Nance at Douglas, and Mabel Hay at Round Up, Montana. Esther Balcom goes to Ritzville, Emma Hollinshead to Bingen, and Susie King to Odessa.

SENIOR HALL

Itha Winchell, a Senior A, was the honored guest at a party Thursday evening. Those present were: Duo Hollis, Ethel Warwick, Leona Goff, Edna Miller, and Itha Winchell.

Loys Richards, Leona Olson, Ruth and Leila Gritman, and Laura Lathrop gave a feed Friday night. Fudge, waffles and coffee were partaken of with much relish.

Dorothy Billson, Amber Clarke, and Lorine Wilson, a guest of Amber Clarke, spent the week-end at Four Lakes.

Miss Dorothy Hollinshead, of Spokane, was the guest of her sister, Emma, this week-end.

Room 201 was the scene of a fudge party Saturday night in honor of Miss Dorothy Hollinshead. Those present were: Frances Briscoe, Emma Hollinshead, Marie Stevens, and Dorothy Hollinshead.

Paradise Alley gave a breakfast Friday morning in honor of Emma Hollinshead and Gladys Meuli, who were leaving the hall this quarter.

Julia De Young, Mildred Wilt, and Elma Wagner were the honored guests at a slumber party Friday evening. The entertainers were: Nova Terril, Lorna Lieberg, Marjorie Baxter, Esther Mohr, and Lois Sampson. The password was "How's your bones?"

Lucy Campbell was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gwinn in Garfield the past week-end.

Ruth Gritman, Laura Lathrop, and Alma Bennett hiked to Fish lake Saturday.

Theopa Lee, Ardath Davis, Peggy Burke, Edna Shepardson, Freda Shook, and Franchon Metz were Spokane visitors over the week-end.

Several girls left Senior Hall this quarter to teach or to go home. Thirteen new girls have entered the hall.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM FOR DECEMBER 20

Mr. Fouser to Direct Singing of Carols.
—Miss Swerter to Arrange Tableau.

Plans are now being made for a Christmas program, which will be held Thursday, December 20.

From now on Mondays and Thursdays will be special assembly days, on which the students will practice Christmas carols. Mr. Fouser will direct the singing.

The program will begin promptly Thursday at 4 o'clock, in the auditorium. All students who expect to teach should be interested in the Christmas program.

Miss Swerter of the Art Department will arrange a tableau.

The purpose of this program is to spread the Christmas spirit.

The large Christmas tree, which will stand in the rotunda, will be lighted after the program.

As it has been decided to give the money which would have been spent for presents, to help the students in Europe, no presents will be given this year.

The children in the Training School will be present at the afternoon program.

Y. W. C. A. Plans Pageant

The Y. W. C. A. is planning a Christmas pageant, to be given in the auditorium and rotunda Thursday evening. This will be followed by a one-hour play hour.

FLOOR COPS WIELD VIGILANTES' PADDLE

"Peter" Knoble Goes Under Swing of Vindictive Stroke.—Tom Monroe Has Close Shave.

Another case came up recently which called again for the application of wood swung from the wrist. The paddling squad of Sutton Hall discovered the other evening that "Peter" Knoble and Tom Monroe had left their "flops" unmade far past the hour of 9:30 a. m. Accordingly, the vigilantes took steps toward prosecuting the iniquitous pair. They were not to be found in the hall, however, but a clue soon led to their whereabouts. A jolly sprint to the Rose theater brought six strong-armed wild men within reach of the delinquents, who were promptly ushered to the out-of-doors and back to their hall.

In the presence of the much-feared Judge Lager, the culprits withered away. As a prosecuting attorney, "Minnie" Men Muir pushed the case with the supporting evidence, Dell Russell, attorney for the defense, established a reputation as a soul saver. So bravely and so eloquently did he expound on the "rights of man" and equity lenience that the jury could scarce repress their tears. Monroe was released as a free man, but Knoble left the court room with a much warmer feeling than when he entered. A swat from each of six loyal floor cops made a marked impression, but perhaps the stroke by Jack Pickering, who wished to demonstrate the W. S. C. swing, did more toward promoting efficiency in domestic welfare than "Peter", would care to acknowledge.

FRIDAY PLAY HOUR SWELLS MUSIC FUND

Similar Events to Help Pay Expense of Employing a Dancing Instructor.

A special play hour was held last Friday evening. Ten cents admission was charged, the proceeds going to help pay for repairs on the musical instruments and to aid the fund which is being collected to buy new instruments.

A number of extra play hours will be scheduled for the winter quarter. Ten cents admission will be charged. The proceeds will be used to pay a dancing master to come here to give the Normal students instruction in correct dancing.

Chinooks Plan Bazaar

With a strong organization of 25 members, the Chinook Campfire is planning a special Christmas bazaar. At a meeting Thursday the camp was divided into several groups, each of which will be responsible for a particular phase of the program. A ceremonial meeting has been scheduled for next week.

The Junior class of the Puyallup High School will give the play, "Nothing But the Truth" in the high school auditorium December 14.

Evening service will be held in the Episcopal Mission Chapel at 7:30 this Sunday.

Normal Wins Five Games Out of Seven

three in football, two in track and one in baseball.

Homer Davis, of Coulee City, end, was a power in his position. Very few plays were completed around his end and he was very good at the receiving end of a forward pass and a consistent ground gainer.

Claude Turner, of Deer Park, half-back, was one of the most consistent ground gainers of the team, making long gains around end as well as through the line. In a punting duel Claude could be relied upon to out-punt his opponent. This was his second year in football. He also possesses a letter in track and baseball.

Tom Smith, of Cheney, end, is one of the few football players who when called upon, can function in nearly any position on the team, and therefore a valuable man to the team. This is his second year in football.

Lance Crow, of Pullman, center, entered school too late to compete in enough quarters to make his letter, but would surely have won his letter had he had the chance, as he is a powerful center, both in defense and offense, and is a deadly man at blocking punts.

The following are men who did not win their letters in football, but who were very essential to the team, some of them playing part of the time with the second team and part of the time with the first team, giving the first team excellent scrimmage practice:

Chester "Maggie" Magnette, of Palouse; Everett Reed, of Johnson; John Davis, of Endicott; "Eddie" Kienholz, of Harrington; Armand Brim, of Fairfield; Allen Shaver, Elk; Floyd Chapman, Chewelah; Lester Reeves, Goldendale; Leon "Fat" Lewis, Steptoe; C. Morgan, Cheney; Lawrence Fisher, Garfield; Ray Miller, Cheney; Loren Turner, Elk; Clarence Men Muir, Colville; and Maurice Brislawn, Sprague.

VIOLIN STUDENTS APPEAR IN RECITAL

Numbers Given With Admirable Precision.—Assisted by Normal String Quartet.

Violin students of Miss Marian A. Lawton, instructor in violin and ensemble playing, appeared in the first recital of the season on Sunday afternoon, December 9. All numbers, particularly those requiring ensemble, were given with an admirable degree of precision.

The following students appeared on the program: Anna McHenry, Muriel Lawton, Una Jones, Emma Hollinshead, Alice Michels, Edith Collard, Helen Jensen, Helen Victor, Roberta Watson, Harold Kirklin, Richard Lawton, and Kathryn Smith.

The Normal string quartet, a new organization, presented numbers by Bach, Handel, and McDowell. For an encore they played "Old Black Joe." The string quartet is composed of Marian Lawton, Mildred Stache, Beulah Florida, and Robert Hungate.

Normal School Is Efficiently Organized

cation is without a regular head, Dr. Meriman having resigned last September to go to the University of Wisconsin. Its staff is, however, larger than that of any other department, since it includes not only a regular Normal faculty, but the Training School teachers as well. It is made up as follows: Division of Education—Robert Dodge Baldwin, A. B., A. M., observation and method and administration; Jeannette S. Donaldson, A. B., A. M., methods; George E. Craig, rural education; David Alexander Barber, A. B., A. M., tests and psychology; Rhea Lambert, A. B., methods; Samuel F. Shinkle, A. B., A. M., rural education. KINNIKINICK SUCCESS HANGS ON TAG SALE

Annual Staff Plans Intensive Campaign for Securing Early Deposits on Year Book.

While the publishing of the 1924 Cheney Normal annual, entitled the Kinnikinnick, is not as yet assured due to an uncertainty of sufficient early deposits by students, the sale of tags is promising. The business staff of the annual is planning an intensive campaign by which it hopes to secure an order from each student in school, thus making it possible for the editorial staff to put out the Kinnikinnick in a form more attractive than low receipts could warrant.

In addition to the early appointment of Gilbert Hartman as editor-in-chief, the following students have been assigned permanent positions on the staff:

Assistant editor, Florence Wendler; business manager, Dan Daubert; assistant business manager, Robert Farnsworth; men's athletics, H. J. Quinn; debate, Clark Robinson; art editor, Edna Miller; art assistant, Earl Akers; dramatics, Mrs. Mildred Gellerman; joke section, Victor Smith; organizations, Mary Bayer, classes, Mabel Thomas, assisted by Mildred Fish; women's athletics, Ellen Murphy; society, Emma Hoffstetter; special writers, Alma Bennett and Mae Stalder.

NATIONAL Y. W. C. A. SECRETARY AT NORMAL

Miss Heller Here to Help Organize Work for the Coming Year.—Is Guest at Monroe Hall.

Elsie B. Heller, national secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association for the northwest, arrived yesterday and will remain over the week-end.

Miss Heller has come to help the Normal Y. W. C. A. plan and organize its work for the coming year.

While in Cheney Miss Heller will be a guest at Monroe Hall.

Faculty Program

At the regular faculty meeting last Tuesday afternoon the members of the music department described the work being done in the school.

Mr. Fouser gave a short talk, Miss Lawton discussed ensemble music, and Miss Paige discussed the value of keyboard knowledge.

HOW YOU CAN HELP US

The work of getting out the Journal is not a snap. During the quarter just closed we have worked under many adverse conditions. To organize a staff that would do acceptable work and hand in copy promptly was one of our first problems. To co-ordinate the mechanical work involved another problem, due to the fact that the composition and printing are done in two offices. However, we have met everywhere with an excellent spirit of co-operation. Mr. Hochtritt, of the Normal printing department, and Mr. Swank, of the Cheney Free Press, have done all they could to facilitate the work of publication. The members of the staff have responded with commendable spirit. With the organization of a class in Journalism we hope to give the Normal a publication in every way worthy of the school.

In one important way members of the faculty, students, and members of the staff can help: Wherever possible have all copy in the Journal office by 1 o'clock on Mondays. If you knew how rushed we have been Tuesday afternoons, you would understand why we ask this.

We thank you.

SAVAGES

We had a hard time selecting a name. Now that we have one, let us make it stand for all that it should. It is not the name of the school that makes it known; it is the way in which all the students and alumni revere and respect the school and its name.

If you happen to have any other choice of a name than the one selected, forget it. Learn to like the name selected. We may have internal difficulties, but let us present a unified spirit to the public. If you can think of any new yells for our name, write them and give them to the yell leader. We are going to start building a new school spirit about the name. See if you can't do something to help.

KEEP ANNOUNCEMENT OUT OF ASSEMBLIES

The bulletin board is the place to make announcements, not the assembly. No wonder students don't read the bulletin board, when they know they will hear all important notices in the assembly. Post all notices on the bulletin board. After a student has missed an announcement or two of vital interest to him, he will read the bulletin board, and it will function as it should. Persons wishing to make announcements in Student Association meetings should never be given the floor. Let us reserve the assembly period for something more worth while.

HAVE YOU YOUR TAG?

Don't you want a Kinnikinnick? You surely want some memento of your life here in the institution. In the annual you will find photographs and write-ups of friends and acquaintances of this year. The value of the book will increase with time. In fifty years you wouldn't sell it for fifty dollars. Save a cent here and a nickel there and buy an annual.

You'll be sorry if you don't.

THAT SUBTLE DEMON

Time flies! One twelfth of the new quarter, one fifty-second of the year, one week of your life, has just passed—gone forever. What do you have to show for it? Have you covered the first lap of the race for success at the end of the quarter, or has the subtle demon, Laziness, already spied you as a victim? Disappoint him. Demonstrate the superiority of human ambitions.

ONE WAY TO HELP

This quarter ushers in the next athletic sport. We are going to have another winning squad, if we give them our backing. We are going to play some of the big schools in the northwest. To be successful we must cultivate college spirit and a collegiate habit of putting things across. Learn the yells. That is one way to help win games.

The Tattle Tale

Try This On Your Uke
 Stepping Tonight
 (Tune of Tenting Tonight)
 I'm stepping tonight with my
 roommate's girl;
 Stepping her to a show.
 I'm happy now, my room-
 mate's not;
 Because he was too slow.

Chorus

Angry is the heart of my roommate tonight;
 Waiting for me home to come.

Fearful is my heart as I turn
 toward home tonight,
 To pay for what I've done.

Stepping tonight, stepping tonight, stepping with my
 roommate's girl.

Black eyes tonight, black
 eyes tonight,

Black eye's 'cause I stepped
 his girl;

Stepping no more, stepping no
 more, no more with my roommate's girl.

—Mab.

Officers

President: A person who is popular enough to be elected,
 but who becomes a poor fish immediately afterward. All he needs is the ability to please everyone, a loud voice and commanding personality, infinite knowledge of Parliamentary law and lots of time.

Vice President: Either nothing or as above.

Secretary-treasurer: An expert accountant who works for nothing, for the privilege of
 O. K.ing bills.

Expose

If her eyes are blue as skies,
 They're painted that way;
 If she walks with a cute little swing,
 She practiced all day.

If her lips are like a wee rose,
 She did it with paint.

If you like the white of her nose,
 It normally ain't.

If she cuddles up in your arms,
 She's done it before.

Am I the lad to fall for her charms?

Yes, that, and some more.

Publicity Poem No. 4

Sweet Papa

Paw Nelson, a famous fellow,
 Is known the campus o'er;
 Alas, he won't step other girls;
 His maw he does adore.

Whenever she does go away
 He sheds buckets full of tears;

And all the girls in Monroe
 Hall

Couldn't vamp him in ten

Why Worry?

You either came to the Normal or didn't. If you didn't, why worry? When you got here, you either didn't get by or did. If you did, why worry? If you didn't get by, you either stayed or were sent home. If you were sent home, why worry? And if you stayed you still can look forward to reading the Journal! So why worry?

Don't Forget Claude

Neva M.: Why, Twin, do you know that I once saw a man with one blue eye and one brown eye?

L. Murray: Huh! That's nothing. I know a man on the campus who has one grey and one black eye.

Neva M.: Really? Who is it?

Lorine: Quim Lefevre.
